

CONSTITUTION OF THE NEVADA BOW HUNTERS
ASSOCIATION
February 1, 1980

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Nevada Bow Hunters Association, abbreviated as N.B.H.A. and shall be recognized as the Nevada State Archery Association, as affiliated with the National Field Archery Association.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

1. To foster, expand and perpetuate the practice of Field Archery throughout the State of Nevada;
2. To foster and perpetuate a spirit of good fellowship among all archers within the state;
3. To encourage the use of the bow in hunting of all game and to protect, improve, and increase the privileges of bow hunters;
4. To cooperate with the Federal and State Governments, sportsmen, and conservationists in the propagation and conservation of game in its natural habitat;
5. To conduct a continuous educational program designed to acquaint the public with the bow and its uses as a practical and humane weapon, suitable under proper regulations for the hunting of all game animals and birds on the American Continent;
6. To cooperate with all existing or future archery organizations, either target or field, in fostering or perpetuating the use of the bow in accordance with its ancient and honorable traditions;
7. To recognize the National Field Archery Association, hereafter referred to as N.F.A.A., as a parent organization, and abide by all the rules and regulations as set forth in the Constitution and Bylaws and policy which govern the activities of the N.F.A.A.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

1. Any person wishing to become a member of the N.B.H.A./N.F.A.A. can do so by submitting a membership application with the applicable fees to the State Secretary;
2. Each new member shall receive a copy of the Constitution;
3. A six-(6) week membership in the N.B.H.A. is required to be able to vote. Also, the member voting shall have reached his/her eighteenth (18th) birthday;

4. Any person wishing to become an Associate Member of the N.B.H.A. can do so by submitting a membership application with the applicable fees to the State Secretary. An Associate Member will be eligible to have their game entered in our Game Register. This member would have all rights in the N.B.H.A., with the exception of shooting in tournaments which require the N.F.A.A. handicap classification card. They would be eligible to compete in the Bowhunter Jamboree. They would not be eligible for anything affiliated with the N.F.A.A.;
5. Honorary membership, with exemption from regular fees and dues, may be granted for exceptional merit and service to the sport of Archery, upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee, only in the state organization, the N.B.H.A.;
6. A lifetime N.B.H.A. membership will be available to all regular members. Life Membership with exemption from regular fees and dues may be granted to head of household, wives, and children under 18 upon payment per following schedule:

i. Head of Household	$150.00
ii. Head of Household (over 65)	50.00
iii. Spouse	25.00
iv. Children under 18 (each)	25.00

When children under 18 reach the age of 18, they will have to pay the balance of $125.00, or if they choose, start paying yearly dues. The fees can be paid quarterly in four (4) equal payments; however, total fee must be paid within a twelve-(12) month period. Wives and children fees do not apply if the Head of Household fees are not paid.

7. The Executive Committee may suspend any member, who, in their opinion, is guilty of acts unbecoming a sportsman, or who has brought discredit to himself or Archery through his actions. The Executive Committee shall also file minutes of their actions and decisions with the Secretary of N.B.H.A. and N.F.A.A. per N.F.A.A. Constitution, Article III - Membership, Paragraph A, Section 8.

ARTICLE IV - ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND THEIR TERMS

1. The Directors of the N.B.H.A. shall be: President, Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer, Nevada Director for the NFAA, Associate Director, Target Director, and four at-large Directors. Additionally, there will be a Club Representative from each affiliate club. These Directors and Club Representatives will constitute the Executive Committee and shall be N.B.H.A./N.F.A.A. members in good standing. Both Directors and Club Representatives will be referred to as Officers
2. The total eligible membership shall have the opportunity to vote for the Directors.
3. The method (appointment or election) by which affiliate clubs choose their Club Representative shall be left to the discretion of each club.

4. The Directors of the N.B.H.A. shall be nominated, elected, and installed in the office in accordance with the following provisions: At least sixty (60) days prior to the N.B.H.A. Bowhunter Jamboree Championship, the Secretary/Treasurer shall send out a notice that nominations are in order and all nominees will be advised of their nominations by the Secretary/Treasurer.
5. The names of the persons nominated for the various offices of the N.B.H.A. must be in writing and in possession of The Secretary/Treasurer of the N.B.H.A. forty-five (45) days preceding the N.B.H.A. Bowhunter Jamboree Championship. Each nominee must be a member in good standing of the N.B.H.A./N.F.A.A. with the right to vote. Any nomination received after this deadline will not be accepted.;
6. The Secretary/Treasurer shall confirm all nominations and then place these names on ballots and mail each member, in good standing with voting rights, one ballot. These shall be sent no later than thirty (30) days preceding the N.B.H.A. Bowhunter Jamboree Championship;
7. Affiliate clubs shall submit the name of the Club Representative to the Secretary/Treasurer no later than 14 days preceding the N.B.H.A. Bowhunter Jamboree Championship.
8. Each member of the N.B.H.A., who is eligible to vote, may either mail their ballot to the Secretary/Treasurer, or bring the ballot in person to the N.B.H.A. Bowhunter Jamboree Championship.
9. On the date of the N.B.H.A. Bowhunter Jamboree Championship, the President shall appoint a committee of three (3) impartial persons to count the ballots. They, in turn, shall report their findings to the President, who shall declare the persons receiving the majority of the votes as elected to the respective offices of the N.B.H.A. The newly elected Directors and Club Representatives shall be installed in their office at the N.B.H.A. Bowhunter Jamboree Championship. All appointed officers shall be reconfirmed or new appointments made at this time;
10. The term of office for all elected officers including the Club Representatives will be two (2) years.
11. Should a vacancy occur in any of the Directors , the Executive Committee shall appoint an N.B.H.A./N.F.A.A. member in good standing to fill that vacancy for the unexpired term. Should a vacancy occur in a Club Representative position, the affiliate club shall choose a member to fill that vacancy for the unexpired term. In the event the office of President should be vacated, the Vice President would assume that office.
12. When a officer of the Executive Committee repeatedly fails to perform their duties, phone calls have not been returned and a registered letter has had no response for at least 2 weeks, the Executive Committee shall appoint a N.B.H.A./N.F.A.A. member in good standing to fill that position for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE V - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

1. Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, and such action as may be taken from time to time by the N.B.H.A., the Executive Committee shall control and manage the activities, policies, and property of the N.B.H.A.;
2. The Executive Committee shall meet at the call of the President whenever possible and deemed necessary; but not less than twice (2) in one year. Once shall be at the N.B.H.A. Bowhunter Jamboree Championship; and a mid-winter meeting, the date and place to be set by the Executive Committee. It shall require at least thirteen (13) members of the Executive Committee to constitute a quorum. In those cases deemed necessary by the President, decisions may be made by a mail vote;
3. In those events in which one of the Directors is unable to attend an Executive Committee meeting, alternates, as selected by the Executive Committeemen from that region, are acceptable if the alternate is a member in good standing of the N.B.H.A./N.F.A.A.

ARTICLE VI - NEVADA DIRECTOR TO THE N.F.A.A.

1. Any changes to the N.F.A.A. Constitution regarding the term of office, election, etc., for the N.F.A.A. Director will automatically be adhered to by the N.B.H.A.;
2. The Nevada Director for the N.F.A.A. shall be an officer of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VII - FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the N.B.H.A. shall start on the same date as the installation of new officers.

ARTICLE VIII – SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The N.B.H.A. will have a memorial scholarship fund for the furtherance of education of N.B.H.A. members. The fund will be established from donations and supplemented from the N.B.H.A. general fund. The fund will be used for those individuals who have made contributions to the sport of archery and are likely to make contributions in the future. Disbursements from this fund will be made with the approval of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee will review all applications for scholarships and may choose to award funds based on the needs of the individual. The Executive Committee shall take the financial situation of the N.B.H.A., at the time of application, into consideration before any funds are approved.

ARTICLE IX - ALTERATIONS AND/OR AMENDMENTS

1. This Constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the ballots returned by the N.B.H.A. membership. Any alterations or amendments must be presented to the Secretary/Treasurer in writing, through the Executive Committee, who may present the same to the membership by secret ballot for their consideration and vote;

2. All ballots are to remain unopened until the Tabulating Committee meets to count them;
3. A three (3) member Tabulating Committee appointed by the President will count the ballots and report the results to the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE X - ADOPTION

Upon adoption of this Constitution by two-thirds (2/3) of the ballots returned, the Secretary/Treasurer shall, as soon as possible, mail a copy of the same to the Executive Secretary of the N.F.A.A. and to the Southwest Sectional Councilman of the N.F.A.A. for their approval. Upon their approval, this Constitution shall become the official document of rules and regulations of the N.B.H.A. This approval will be required in writing as part of the record or the N.B.H.A.

ARTICLE XI – TRANSITION TIMELINE

Upon adoption of the Constitutional Change approved by members in June of 2010 and the associated By-law changes approved at Mid-winter meeting in January of 2011, the following procedure will ensure the transition to a new structure:

1. elections in June 2011 will select officers for the new structure.
2. 2010-2011 officers, newly elected officers, and newly elected club representatives shall meet together at summer meeting in June 2011 when new officers are installed.
